Freedom of Press Treaty Proposed

Move Seen as Decisive Step In Guaranteeing Free Expression

GENEVA, March 28.—(CP)—Hector McNeill, British minister of state, today proposed an international treaty to safeguard the freedom of the press.

Such a treaty, McNeill said, would mark a decisive step forward in guaranteeing the fundamental right of human beings to seek freedom of expression.

The British draft convention largely followed one proposed to the United Nations conference on freedom of information last week by the United States, but it was more detailed and more far-reaching.

TO BE DISTRIBUTED

McNeill, former journalist, said the British draft would be distributed to conference delegates within the next day or so.

Advance copies of the draft, still subject to last-minute changes, assured freedom of movement to newspaper men within territories of contracting states without discrimination on grounds of race, nationality or religion.

Under the proposed British draft, signatory states would undertake to permit the distribution of information and opinion by press, radio, film and art without government interference.

Excluded from guaranteed freedom of information were matters which deal with national defense and expressions which tend to overthrow a government.

The treaty would permit countries to take special measures to restrict press freedom.

DISPUTES FOR COURT

The convention would be open to any state party to the United Nations conference and any other state declared eligible by the United Nations.

McNeill's 4,000-word declaration was the first major declaration made by the British draft at the conference.

Storm Death Toll Hits 79 in U.S.

CHICAGO, March 28.—(AP)—Pre-Easter tornadoes and gales that ripped into eight states have added 74 more fatalities to March's vicious rampage. The death toll now stands at 79.

The latest trail of twisters—which struck Friday night in the south and Saturday morning in the north—killed more than 100 persons and caused property damage of several million dollars.

A March mixture of rain, hail, heavy winds and strong winds ended the twisters in the Midwest. Destructive winds and hail hit parts of Alabama and Tennessee.

porters if it will appear before the board, he answered "no comment."

Three minutes before 9 a.m. C.S.T. deadline set for his reply, the United States district judge issued a subpoena to the board to appear at the board's reply to his invitation setting forth his "disinclination" to testify.

Lewis said he based this on (1) "law" and (2) "prejudice." He explained:

1. Neither he nor the UMW has done anything falling under the Taft-Hartley labor law, which President Truman has invoked in the dispute. He called this law an "infamous enactment."

2. Two of the three board members are "biased and prejudiced and in honor should not serve." He named Mark Ehrhardt, publisher of the Louisville, Ky. Times and Courier-Journal, and George W. Taylor, chairman of the old War Labor Board.

Lewis added that Canadian-born Cyrus W. Ching, the government's conciliator, "sees through the eyes of United States laborers."

He said he was employed by that corporation.

MAY GO TO COURT
Should Lewis ignore the subpoena, issued under authority of the United States district judge, he may go to court to get an order directing his appearance.

The soft coal operators testified last Friday on their position in the dispute with Lewis over pensions for miners. Lewis was allowed the entire week-end to reply to the board's invitation.

SAYS NO VIOLATION
In his reply to the board, Lewis said in effect that the Taft-Hartley law under which the board was appointed, had not been violated.

As the mine shutdown began its third week, coal operators estimated it had already cost the United States $500,000 and miners an amount double that.

Lewis added that Canadian-born Cyrus W. Ching, the government's conciliator, "sees through the eyes of United States laborers."

A 10-cent royalty on coal production dating back to last July 1 has built up the funds. But Lewis and Ezra Van Horn, respective trustees for the union and the operators, have been unable to agree.

PROPOSED PENSION
Lewis has proposed $100 monthly payments to miners 60 or older with 30 years' service. He said the mine operators "dishonored" their agreement by not agreeing on a pension method by which Van Horn says the amount proposed by Lewis is too high.

Pension eligibility also is in dispute. Lewis wants it to apply to all his union members upon reaching retirement age. But Van Horn has contended it is illegal to pay pensions to miners whose employers haven't been contributing to the welfare fund.

Nine days after the miners walked out on their strike, the War Labor Board invoked emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act to shut down the inquiry board, headed by Federal Judge Sherman Minton, was the first step.

Atomic Parley End Demanded

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., March 28.—(AP)—Canada, Britain, France and China today demanded that atomic dealings to the United Nations be ended.

The four countries declared that a mere convention banning bombs, without world controls, help create a false security. They denounced the whole of Russia's atomic proposals as inadequate and unrealistic.

The four countries put resolution before the working commission of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission calling for rejection of the Russian proposals as they stand now. They asked the committee to declare there is no purpose in discussing them further.

NOT FORMAL BREAK
Delegates from the four countries said the resolution does not constitute a final and formal break with Russia on the whole atomic question. They said they are ready to discuss new Russian proposals but they do not want to go over the same ground again and over the same ground again.

The United States did not join in the statement. The United States said it was not a Communist in Germany.

East Communications Knocked Out by Storm

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

MONTECLAIR, N.J., March 28.—(CP)—Still working after more than 24 hours emergency crews today slowly repaired the tremendous damage done to communications by a week-end storm which cut off Quebec City and other parts of the province from the outside world.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada reported some 800 of its lines were felled by the storm while the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Telegraphs reported scores of their circuits out of order.

ALL LINES OUT
For a while, not a single telephone or telegraph line was working order in the Quebec, Victoriaville and Three Rivers district.

Later today, however, communications companies were restoring services and Bell Telephone Company expected 15 of its 43 lines between Quebec and Montreal to be in operation by noon.

Amateur radio operators were the only means of communication with Quebec City for nearly 24 hours and the Canadian Press reported that more than 100 wire operators and over 20 trunks and poles broke under the weight of the ice in Montreal Saturday night.

SAVING LOSS SEEN
In Montreal, all areas isolated from the street-and-snow storm Saturday and many districts were without power for 24 hours. Police reported that more than 100 wire operators and over 20 trunks and poles broke under the weight of the ice in Montreal Saturday night.

Damage is expected to reach hundreds of thousands of dollars. The Victoriaville district was completely cut off for 48 hours. In Quebec City, less than 75 miles away.

In Quebec City, the provincial legislature was forced to adjourn Saturday night after members had failed to carry on by Sunday night. At adjournment government members could not see opposition members across the chamber.

Near-Record Entry Features Dog Show

It was a great and proud day for dog owners at the Prince of Wales Armories today when the first of two all-breed dog shows was officially opened.

There was a near-record entry of 182 dogs for the show, sponsored by the Capital City Kennel Club of Alberta.

On Tuesday the English Cocker Spaniel Club of Alberta will sponsor the show.

A late train held up judging today when Judge Vic Williams of Vancouver failed to arrive. He was expected to be on hand during this afternoon when judging of terriers will commence.

PLENTY OF NOISE

Leather-lunged officials were having trouble making themselves heard, even with the help of public address equipment, above the din created by nearly 200 dogs.

On display was everything from 182 dogs in the shape of dogs and a whole lot that might not be so readily identified as dogs.

There were huge, friendly Newfoundlanders tall, stately and not-so-friendly Rottweilers well-bounded down to tiny midgets of the dog world like the Mexican Chihuahua.

In between were a wide assortment of bull dogs, spaniels, terriers, setters and Toys with a mean-looking northern Husky thrown in.

PARAWAY EXHIBITORS

Exhibitors were here from places as far distant as Los Angeles and Winnipeg.

Officials handling the large number of exhibits in the Capital Kennel Club show Monday included: President, John S. Grant, vice-president, Mrs. R. E. Austin, Jr., Young, Mrs. Alice Martin, Mrs. E. D. Grant, Miss Gladys Clark, supervisor, A. E. Fleg and secretary, Mrs. Mary D. Gardner.

Qualifying Time For Northern Pay

Drastically Cut

Qualifying time for "northern pay" in the Canadian army has been cut in half.

Canadian army headquarters announced today men of the active force will be eligible for special pay and allowances after 20 days in the far north.

An earlier ruling set the basic qualifying time at 60 days.

The allowances are in addition to pay normally accorded serving men.

Married men with families living away from home on northern duty now get living allowance of $40.71, plus $7.50 for government quarters and $33.33 for food not provided.

THEY HAVE PLENTY OF PRACTISE

What's the Answer? Ask An Edmonton Librarian

No one can say Edmontonians haven't a thirst for knowledge. During 1947 the reference department of Edmonton's public library answered no less than 17,255 questions.

There were countless inquiries regarding houses — about house plans, carpentry details, plumbing, painting, heating, plastering, painting, furniture, curtains and slip covers, according to Ada Anderson, head of the department.

These questions touch upon a variety of subjects, such as: Play the Brooklyn Dodgers, mail, Princess Elizabeth, thermocouples, Ernest Bevin, the Mexican plot, "Smorgasbord," Java, mythology — yes, and the atomic bomb.

Very few questions remain unanswered.

MINOR THEFTS ARE REPORTED

Two minor thefts were reported to the police over the weekend.

Ray Shultz, 11303 102 avenue, told police two hub caps from his car were stolen while he attended a weekend theatre Saturday.

Airborne Forces Play Major Part In Future Wars

Airborne operations will play a major part in any future war, Major-General J. M. Gavin, former commander of U.S. 82 Airborne Division and present deputy commander of U.S. Fifth Army revealed the role of airborne troops to 52 students of Canadian Army Staff College at Kingston last week.

The 40-year-old general emphasized importance of army-air liaison and stressed the growing importance of defense in the air.

Rowdy Juniors To Be Curbed

Actions of juvenile hockey fans at Edmonton's arena came in for sharp criticism today from the executive directors of the Exhibition Association.

In announcing plans for renovations to the arena, the directors simultaneously announced restrictions to curb the shenanigans of the youngsters.

Children unaccompanied by their parents or guardians will not be admitted. It was stated. This rule is being taken to prevent youngsters from pushing past ticket collectors.

The directors also announce an increase in police patrols at hockey games.

Ticket scalping will be carefully watched in future, the announcements said. Directors said they would station men at the arena in future to stamp out this practice.

A stand-service truck will be stationed at the arena in future, warning customers of the many ways in which shysters try to fustify tickets on them.

Directors also ask that each person carry his own ticket when entering the rink, instead of one person carrying tickets for a large party. This, they said, would eliminate confusion at the ticket gate.

Also check would-be gate-crashers.

Medical and legal questions are taboo because library authorities refuse to diagnose medically or decide a legal question.

Seventy to 125 questions a day is the average. People in the area are fond of pets, and such enquiries range from pigeons and canaries to goldfish and turtles.

Edmontonians lack no interest in hobbies.

Every day people ask about model airplanes and crafts from quilleries made from pigeons and canaries to goldfish and turtles.

Ambitious people are anxious to learn more about their jobs and to fit themselves for better ones.

There is hardly any question pertaining to everyday life which is not asked, and to enquire at the reference desk.

Judging by some of questions asked, social and country activities play large part in Edmontonians' lives.

COUSIN LAYS THEFT CHARGE

Lloyd Carter, no fixed address, was booked by police Saturday on charges of theft.

Carter is alleged to have stolen a watch valued at $25 from his cousin, Alfred Carter, 9229 114 avenue, and Fred Carter, Commercial Hotel, 10401 104th street, is charging the accused with theft of a suit of clothes.

Welfare Probe Delay Likely

With Chief Justice W. R. Howson still under treatment in hospital it was virtually certain today the Alberta Welfare Commission inquiry into operations of the provincial welfare commission was not resumed for some weeks.

Chief Justice Howson is chairman of a three-man Royal Commission making a sweeping inquiry into operations of the provincial welfare commission.

The commission was adjourned on March 9, when the chairman entered hospital with a "cholesterol and triglyceride" condition.

Howson's return to court was not expected until after completion of trials of Jack Kent Cooke, Harold Duggan and Dr. Charlotte Whitton, charged with conspiracy to defraud the public.

Trials are scheduled to open in supreme criminal court here on April 1.

Cooke is publisher of New Liberal, a newspaper published in Toronto and Duggan is Ottawa correspondent for the magazine. Dr. Whitton is an Ottawa social worker.

Labor Officials Seek Modification in Act

Organized Labor officials in Edmonton are hopeful of having sections of Alberta Labor Act amended dealing with citizenship and trade union matters in working hours, modified.

Amendments to the Alberta Labor Act now awaiting third reading in the legislature are expected to be finally dealt with in the house Tuesday.

Section of the bill under attack from Trades and Labor Congress (TLC) affiliates in Alberta is that making Canadian citizenship a requisite for all representative and organizers of trade unions in the province.

Spokesmen for the trade unions said Monday this would strike a discriminating blow against affiliates of the American Federation of Labor in this province.

"Nearly all our organizers in many unions are American citizens," a union representative said. "Another section of the amended bill strongly opposed is that prohibiting discussion of trade union matters during working hours except with permission of the employer."

Representatives of both the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress (CTLC) and the Canadian Congress of Labor (CCL), had formally protested the proposed amendments to the agriculture committee of the legislature last week.

A Man, Three Women Sought by Police

An elderly man who likes to ride on buses is one of four missing persons being sought by city police today.

He is Albert Holmes, 64, who has been seen wearing a grey suit and cap, carrying a cane, and limps from a right knee injury.

Eileen Foley, 37, 10622 129 street, has been reported missing since Saturday by her sister, Mrs. F. B. Robertson.

She is described as being five feet, four inches tall, dark hair, black seal coat trimmed with Persian lamb and brown velvet hat trimmed with pink flowers.

Two women escaped from Oliver Hotel last Saturday night.

First reported to be 39 years old, four-foot eleven, 124 pounds, dark hair, bushy brow, brown tweed coat, blue slacks, wine colored parka with brown fur trim.

The second is 28 years old, five foot five, 125 pounds, dark brown hair, brown eyes, brown plaid coat with grey fur collar, no hat.

Police Hold Two Suspects

Object of a police search since last Wednesday, Peter Chelintz and Raymond Coulson, no fixed address, were arrested early today by Detectives Edward MacLean and Duncan MacLean, on charges of assault with intent to rob.

The men were sought in connection with a robbery of a mail truck on 10210 105th street, last Tuesday evening.

The $360 questions they asked last week were concerned mainly with what other nations did, drink and their various recreations.

Other questions touched upon RCMP, jail-life, health of people in prehistoric times, and how pioneers made soap.

One boy topped them all by asking how to make a submarine which he wanted to play with in the river.

Reference department had to admit its ignorance on that one.

Hunting Season Afar But Buy Shells Now

Only Trickle of Orders Placed Being Received

Get ammunition early for this year's hunting season. That was the advice given Monday by sporting goods dealers and wholesalers in Edmonton during an Edmonton Bulletin survey of the gun and ammunition market.

Most Edmonton dealers shrugged their shoulders when asked about ammunition. One man pointed to a meagre shelf containing a few boxes of 22 calibre cartridges and said: "That's all we have. We have orders in for plenty of 30-06 and other calibres, but just can't get them."

Rumors that the Winchester factory in the States had gone on 100 per cent war production, warning up the current "cold war" ammunition, was the explanation, though wholesalers acknowledged it might be true.

Canada's "austerity" dollar-saving program took the brunt of the blame for the shortage of supply. Dealers are restricted to 10 per cent of their imports in 1948. It was explained, and though Canadian manufacturers are now manufacturing calibres they have not yet been able to supply enough to meet the demand.

"The same thing applies to shotgun ammunition," one wholesaler warned. "So you can tell the shooter to stock up whenever they get a chance."

SUN MORE DANGEROUS THAN WINTER'S FROST

Cold is not as dangerous to the Canadian Army as our summer sun.

Exercises conducted in Wainwright park this winter have proved a properly dressed and well fed army is not hampered by cold in its operations.

Sunburn, a Canadian Army headquarters report said today, causes more "casualties" last summer than frostbite did during winter exercises.

Easter Parade Hit By Chilly Weather

Fur Coats a "Must" Item In Most Cities of Dominion

By The Canadian Press

Chilly weather, accompanied in some sections by snow and rain, made fur coats a "must" item Sunday in most of Canada's Easter parades.

First Wildlife Week April 4

OTTAWA, March 29.—(CP)—Canada's wild life, which contributes about $600,000,000 a year to Canadian hunters, trappers and others, is to receive special attention during the Dominion's first national Wildlife Week to open April 4.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King today announced the week's observation, which stems from the enactment of a private bill brought up in the Commons last year by John R. MacNeill, (P-Toronto-Davenport).

A dinner to officially inaugurate Wildlife Week on April 5 will be held at Windsor, Ont., where at nearby Kingsville, the late Jack Miner played an outstanding part in developing bird sanctuaries and arousing public interest in wild life protection.

The prime minister in a statement said the dates for the observance, April 4 to April 10, have been chosen to coincide with the birth date of the great naturalist and was an effective way of honoring his memory.

Final Rites Held

For Hon. R. J. Parker

REGINA, March 29.—(CP)—Hundreds of Saskatchewan citizens crowded St. Paul's Anglican Pro-Cathedral yesterday to pay their last respects to Hon. R. J. Parker, former lieutenant-governor of the province who died from a heart attack Tuesday.

Thousands made good headway along the route of the state funeral procession as the flag-draped casket was escorted past by a composite guard of troops from the Saskatchewan military area and RCMP.

The service was conducted by Most Rev. H. E. Knowles, Anglican Bishop of Qu'Appelle and brother-in-law of the 67-year-old lieutenant-governor who had spent 44 years in public life in Saskatchewan. Leaders of church, state and the armed forces attended the service. They included newly-appointed Lieutenant-Governor J. M. Ulrich, Federal Agriculture Minister C. G. Gardiner, Chief Justice W. M. Martin of the Saskatchewan appeal court and three provincial cabinet ministers—Labor Minister C. G. Williams, Education Minister W. S. Lloyd and Municipal Affairs Minister J. H. Brockiebank.

Victim of Coast Bandits Is Bound

VANCOUVER, March 29.—(CP)—Bandits Saturday bound and gagged Garland Wilson, 25-year-old service station attendant, and escaped with between $200 and $300 in cash. A sheet was thrown over his head as he was wrenched in the garage of Walsh Motors Ltd., and his wrists were bound with wire.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN's call for temporary revival of the draft and for UMT sent these men to the Navy recruiting office in Cincinnati for information about enlistments. Answering questions are Chief Petty officer George F. Perkins (seated) and Marine Sgt. H. P. Hofsvang.

Gruelling Ordeal on Ice Told by Ships' Captains

By Don MacKenzie

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S., March 29.—(CP)—Capt. Joseph Barry, 29, and Capt. Henry, 48, skippers of two sealing ships sunk by rafting ice off St. Paul's Island told in simple words stories of danger and exhaustion when they arrived here Saturday with their crews on the government icebreaker Sauriol.

The over-ice trek of 21 hunters from the sealer Teaser to land had been so strength-sapping that four men had to be carried the last few miles and dories being dragged by the men in case they struck open leads had to be discarded.

DANGEROUS ESCAPE
As the men from the ice-decayed Teaser struggled over the jagged, shifting ice to safety, the 17 crew members were making a dangerous escape from the heaving, buckling Monica Walters.

Northwest gales lashed the Gulf of St. Lawrence again Sunday after mild, rainy weather Saturday and were expected to increase pressure on ice packs in Cabot Strait.

COLD FOLLOWS SLEET
Sleet followed by cold weather coated southwestern Ontario streets and highways with ice. Minor accidents were numerous but no one was severely injured.

A storm which left 12 inches of snow in the Cochrane area swept of the province. Low temperatures followed.

Communism Hit By CCF Member

BRANTFORD, Ont., March 29.—(CP)—Angus MacInnis (CCF-Vancouver East), warned against Communism as he addressed a two-day conference of the CCF party here Saturday.

The Vancouver member of Parliament told the conference the people of the world today are caught between two fears—the fear that capitalism might not be able to supply prosperity, and the opposing fear of Communism.

"The advent of Communism would mean the end of the world as we know it completely for any such organization as the CCF," he said.

Big Ice Field

The field of ice the two sealers were trapped in was reported to be 35 miles long and eight miles wide—an area of 280 square miles of grinding, crushing ice.

"It was a pretty rough experience," said Capt. Barry. "One of the loudest in my experience as a sealer."

WANT TO LIVE LONG? HERE'S PRESCRIPTIONS

LOS ANGELES, March 29.—(AP)—How to live to be 102? Take your choice:

From the woman standpoint, Mrs. Christina Nelson, born in Sweden in 1846, prescribes hard work, good Christian living and a large family. She came to America at 23, cleared Maine timber for a home, had three children, 14 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

For the men, Robert Barnhart, Tennessee-born hoodlum fiddler, suggests bachelorhood, an occasional nip and a chew of tobacco. He proposed a couple of times, but never married.

Both Mrs. Nelson and Barnhart celebrated their 102nd birthdays here last week.

Big Manitoba Border Survey Nearing End

WINNIPEG, March 29.—(CP)—The 50-year-old task of plotting the 650-mile boundary between Ontario and Manitoba is within 30 miles and a few weeks of completion.

Resources Minister J. S. McLeod said the Manitoba survey, begun at Chippewas 115 miles northeast of Hudson Bay, is within 30 miles of completion.

A 16-man survey team under direction of E. Guer, Dominion and Manitoba government surveyor, has pushed through territory which is probably one of the most man has never previously been.

The job of defining the international boundary was begun in 1867. A survey was made from the international boundary at a point north of the Winnipeg river. In 1921 it was extended further north through the central Manitoba area to enable prospectors to register their claims in the right province.

WAR HALTED WORK

As northern activity extended the survey was continued, reaching Island Lake by 1922. Eleven years later the last portion of approximately 300 miles was started, but the outbreak of war in 1939 halted the work.

With the objective a fixed point at the intersection of the Hudson Bay shoreline and the 99th meridian of longitude, the present survey party again set to work four months ago.

Man Reprimanded Shoots Himself

CUMBERLAND, Md., March 29.—(AP)—Nurettin Tighe, 36, shot and killed himself Saturday night after he was reprimanded him for buying her an Easter flower. Police reported, Richard Connor, a patron in a local bar, said Tighe was working, said that she told her husband he could have found a better person than he was when he was walked in with a flower for her. "Something's going to happen—I'm going to finish it right now," Connor quoted Tighe as saying.

Marooned Skiers Brought to Safety

SALT LAKE CITY, March 29.—(AP)—Skiers marooned at Bright on Winter Playground by a snowslide last Thursday were brought through the slide area Saturday night. Among them were 45 Stanford University students in Utah for a spring vacation. One hundred skiers and resort personnel were isolated by the slide.

5 Farmers Look To Land From Sea to Sea

By The Canadian Press

Romy prospects for an early seeding of Ontario and Quebec farmlands, increased acreage objectives and increased labor topped a Canadian Press survey today of the Dominion's spring seeding operations.

Barring unseasonable weather following an early spring, seeding in Ontario and Quebec, retarded last year by a lingering winter, will get underway shortly.

Questionnaires expect to start seeding around the second week in May—their usual time, while for prairie farmers, still awaiting the spring thaw, it is at least a month.

Although spring is a little late in British Columbia, seeding is going ahead in some parts but will not be general for two weeks.

The situation by province:

NOVA SCOTIA: Soil is expected to be "fairly good" by seeding time, Prince Edward Island: Very little water in freshets indicating a good prospect for seeding expected to start about May 10.

QUEBEC: Present condition of soil hard to determine after a hard winter.

Quebec: More than 6,500,000 acres expected to be seeded.

Ontario: Plans for increased acreage of feed grains is expected to result in a yield of 200,000,000 bushels—30,000,000 more than in 1947.

PRAIRIES: Officials were uncertain of the number of acres to be seeded but it is expected to be about the same as last year. Alberta officials believe there will be a tendency for increased acreage in wheat, flax and rye. Fall precipitation in Manitoba was 21 per cent above normal. Saskatchewan officials indicate an increased wheat acreage in plan.

NO EASTER FINERY AT CHURCH SERVICE

ATLANTA, Ga., March 29.—(AP)—The congregation of the Assembly of God Church here left its furs and Easter bonnets at home Sunday.

In response to a request from Pastor Jimmy Mayo that they come dressed in their "every day work clothing," the men turned out in everything from overalls to denim uniforms. The women wore print dresses.

The crowd, largest in the church's history, overflowed into the yard and some Sunday school lessons were taught in the buses in which members had arrived for the services.

The pastor said he made the request of the members "not as a publicity stunt, but it's just that I feel we should do away with the idea that Easter is a time for fashion parades."

DISTRICT NEWS IN BRIEF

Beaverlodge Plans For Future Growth

Council Proceeds With Survey For Water and Sewage System

BEAVERLODGE, March 29.—Town council is proceeding with the survey of the water and sewage system as previously arranged, which is in line with the steady growth and progress which always has made this community an outstanding one in the Peace River country.

Beaverlodge is also known as the centre of the seed growing area of the north, and the home of the Dominion experimental station. Much publicity has been given to the fact that this district built and fully equipped a municipal hospital by public subscription, which has been in operation for the past six years. Recently a community centre was erected and is the foundation for one of the finest of its kind in the whole province. The village is only 28 years old, but now has all streets gravelled and modern fire fighting equipment, with definite plans this summer for cement sidewalks, modern street lighting facilities, and a new modern town hall. All this has been, and will be accomplished without incurring any municipal debt.

Oil exploration now seems to be centred around the Saskatchewan Mountain area just east of here, and it is rumored that drilling will commence there in the near future. It has also been reported on good authority that the provincial School of Agriculture may yet be located at Beaverlodge. If such is the case, the taxpayers are prepared for still further growth.

SYLVAN LAKE, March 29.—All churches held special services during Easter weekend. Memorial Presbyterian church choir of 30 voices under the direction of Mrs. Ian McEwen gave the annual choral service.

FOUR SUCCESSFUL IN FLYING TESTS

Three Recaptured

GAGGETOWN, N.B., March 28.—(CP)—Three teen-agers prisoners who escaped from the prison here Saturday night by sawing through the bars of their cell were recaptured Sunday night in a barn near here.

The four no trump bid by B. Jay Becker in the North definitely was not employing Blackwood, Simon knew all the time he had to have something in hearts, but he still was uncertain about the club suit. When he bid five spades over four no trump, B. Jay (North) felt sure that they were off the club suit.

There was nothing to the play over his partner's bid of two clubs rather than try the diamond suit. When North bid three no trump Becker went to four diamonds, indicating that he might prefer to play the hand at a suit.

Baruch Calls on U.S. Muster All Resources

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(AP)—Bernard Baruch today urged prompt enactment of universal military training and selective service legislation in the United States as a means of achieving "the stability in the world which lasting peace requires."

The financier and adviser to presidents in two world wars, also called for an "economic mobilization plan," and said failure of the United States to muster all its resources now for peace would leave "no alternative but to mobilize for war" in the future.

CALLS FOR WATCH
Testifying before the Senate armed services committee, Baruch suggested the appointment of someone to "watch the impact upon our economy of the partial mobilization we are entering upon and to maintain a constant inventory, balancing all our growing commitments against our resources."

Before Baruch spoke, Chairman Clark Gurney (Rep.-N.J.) said that his armed services committee must conclude hearings on the military phases of President Truman's stop-Russia program by the end of the week.

Gurney's committee is considering (1) temporary revival of the wartime draft, (2) a permanent program of universal military training and (3) immediate expansion of the peacetime strength of the United States armed forces at a cost of $248,000,000.

MUST BE PREPARED
Baruch told the committee: "So terrible are the destructive potentialities of modern instrumentalities of war, it is no longer good enough to punish an aggressor after he has begun a war, preventing war requires buttressing our national security before the crisis is upon us."

Mrs. Donohue's head was badly bruised and her neck bore finger marks. Her clothes were ripped and her dress was around her waist, she had no underwear.

North Koreans Build Defences

Line Said Being Constructed Along United States Zone

By Roy Roberts, Associated Press correspondent in Seoul, Korea.
Who on Friday was the first to report Russian-sponsored North Koreans repeatedly broadcast intimations to South Koreans to take part in setting up a Russian-controlled, Korean government, today made the boundary between the United States and Russian occupation zones. This is what he found.—EDITOR.

By Roy Roberts

OUTPOST IS ON 38th PARALLEL, Korea, March 29.—(AP)—Russian soldiers and North-Korean villagers are digging trenches, foxholes and gun emplacements along the 38th parallel dividing the Russian and American occupation zones of Korea.

Americans don't know why. They assume the Russians ordered the First World War type of defense. The digging was first observed by American pilots early in the month. They presumed the first few undertakings were irrigation ditches. The activity stopped sharply about March 9. One and two-man foxholes appeared.

SEEN BY PATROLS
The digging was first observed by American pilots early in the month. They presumed the first few undertakings were irrigation ditches. The activity stopped sharply about March 9. One and two-man foxholes appeared.

The ditches became trenches six feet deep. Sometimes they were connected by communication trenches 2½ feet deep. Holes 10 feet in diameter were dug and given turret tops with openings for guns pointed south. The weapons were observed but at least one emplacement contains a blood mound as large as that for an American soldier's mortal.

United States intelligence reports indicate the work is concentrated in five valleys containing the main travel routes between North and South Korea.

COMMAND ROAD
The trenches command a road in each valley and railroad lines in three. More than 25 trenches 30 to 50 feet long were dug along the invisible geographical line Saturday. Three or four new ones are observed daily.

Yugoslav Troops Train Near Trieste

By EDGAR CLARK

TRIESTE, March 29.—(UPI)—More than 1,000 new Yugoslav troops are holding combat training maneuvers in a valley by the Adriatic sea in the Yugoslav zone just five miles from the heart of Trieste.

Italian refugees escaping northward said that 5,000 troops and 300 Russian-made tanks have been moved into the Yugoslav zone of the Trieste free territory.

I took a photographer and went into the hills near Crestview, the only place in the allied area offering a free and safe view of the valley.

We didn't see the 300 tanks and didn't count 5,000 troops, but we saw 1,000 men engaged in foot drill, mortar instruction and infantry field tactics.

The whole valley area obviously had been restricted for maneuvers, for heavy machine guns were firing across two roads and into the Adriatic Sea beyond.

AIR FORCE AND NAVY WRANGLE

U.S. Military Leaders Settle Bombing Squabble

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(AP)—The top United States military commanders agreed Saturday on a formula to settle the historic argument between the air force and navy over who should bomb what targets in a war.

Allocation of bombing jobs was part of a detailed assignment of various functions of those two services, plus the army and the Marines, put into writing as a result of the recent conferences of the country's joint chiefs of staff at Key West, Fla. The agreements were forwarded Saturday by Defense Secretary Foran to President Truman.

During the war, bickering among the members of the joint chiefs of staff included a quarrel over whether air should be allowed to engage in bombing of war plants and other strategic targets in cities instead of sticking to strikes only at purely naval targets such as ships and docks. The argument was

Eire Border Gatherings Being Held

By R. D. BROWN

OMAGH, Northern Ireland, March 29.—(Reuters)—The banners and the bands were out in Ireland during the week-end on a greater scale than at any time since Dublin's famous Easter week Nationalist rising 32 years ago.

In Northern Ireland, this small county town of Omagh, capital of County Tyrone, was the centre of demonstrations — for and against the abolition of the Eire-Ulster border.

In Dublin, thousands paid homage at the graves of the leaders who lost their lives in the 1916 rising.

APPROACHING PEAK
The partition issue appears to be mounting to a propaganda and agitation peak, says one authority since before the war. But authorities in Belfast believe that events today, Easter Monday, will pass off peaceably.

Here in Omagh, rival factions will meet at close quarters—the Unionists who will not hear of unity with Eire, and the Nationalists who are determined to obtain the abolition of the border and the incorporation of Northern Ireland's six counties into a united Ireland.

Prime Minister Sir Basil Brooke of Northern Ireland is to address a Unionist demonstration, while two Labor members of the British parliament, H. McKeen and Geoffrey Wing, are expected from London to address the Nationalist anti-partition rally.

TO HOLD MEETING
In the adjoining county, E. McAlister, an anti-partition member of the Ulster parliament in Belfast, plans to hold a meeting in Londonderry, where a St. Patrick's Day demonstration was banned by the government. Nationalists claim this is the first time since 1916 that they have been permitted to hold meetings in Northern Ireland during Easter week.

WELL ASSURED
Another Leduc oil well was assured for the Clifton C. Cross interests over the week-end with successful test of Glens-Leduc West No. 7.

The well which has also extended the field westward a quarter of a mile was tested from 5,120 to 5,148 feet in 122 zone.

Gas flow was rated at 165,000 cubic feet daily and a 4,000 foot column of oil was recovered in a one-hour test.

The well is a western offset of Glens-Leduc West No. 1 which was previously the field's most westerly. This is the team's fifth success in the Leduc field.

Red Cross Backs Nurses In Demonstration School

A revolution is in progress in Windsor, Ontario. Hub of the revolution is an old-fashioned house on a quiet street in the city.

The 24,000 members of the Canadian Nurses' Association, backed by the Canadian Red Cross.

Its object is to provide more nurses for Canada's rapidly expanding hospital work. Cause of the revolution is the growing dissatisfaction of the public and nurses with the present hospital training system.

Its shock troops are 13 young girls from all parts of Canada who began, in January, the first course in the independent Demonstration School of Nursing.

This independently operated nursing school is the first new step in a long time. The system of nursing education in Canada has remained essentially unchanged for nearly 100 years.

It was more time to learn, more energy for study, more leisure hours, more incentive to complete the course.

By this concentration of work the Nurses' Association hopes to cut the usual three years of training down to 25 months and to attract more young women to the nursing profession.

Shortage of adequate nursing care is distributing hospitals across the country. Trained nurses are needed.

Glasses Don't Advertise Age

BY ALICIA HART

There are women who only half see the printed page which they read in public because they think that the use of their specs advertises their age.

Not to use glasses for such a vain reason is not only ridiculous but this failure to act is to impose needless strain on eyes.

Perhaps more women who think that to be seen wearing glasses is an implication of age should be reminded that children wear them and so do high school and college students.

So, why would a pair of specs perched upon a lady's nose imply that she's "getting along"?

The woman who has been fitted with glasses and wears them when she needs to seems less hunched by age than the woman who should

Ten Favorite Suits Described by Stylist

Fashion Picture Illustrates Wide Variety in Silhouette

Suits are traditional for spring, and this year there is a wide variety of styles to choose from, says Marian Corey, who describes the ten best.

"There are many types—some familiar—some new. But familiar or new, everyone can find a suit that suits her, in every way, shape or manner."

"The Classic Suit — This one really has the long look. Last year its skirt was short, its jacket ruffled, long of waist, long of jacket, its every way, shape or manner."

"The Double-Breasted Suit — This is another of the straight-skirt suits. In spite of all the excitement about flares, straight skirts are still in the majority."

"The Tuxedo Suit — New this year, another slim type, all long lines. Long skirt, long jacket, long tuxedo revers. The Flared Suit — New."

"It has a moderately flared skirt, the kind of unexaggerated flare that almost everybody can wear. Usually the jacket is a shirtwaist."

"The Waist Suit — Very big bust with the young crowd. Its skirt is wide; its jacket, short. Girls who are tall and have long waists can wear it best, and under ideal conditions, it is a charming thing."

"The Bustle Suit — Very much revamped from last year's. The jacket is more shorter, and the little ripples stand out more prominently. The skirt may flare a little or a lot."

"The Swallow Tail Suit — This is one of the slim-skirted jackets. In fact, the jacket may be a shirtwaist, and the skirt may be a little longer. A graceful jacket, cut really long. A graceful jacket, cut really long. A graceful jacket, cut really long."

Margaret June Kepp Weds William McConnell

Pastel spring flowers decorated Highlands United Church Saturday when Margaret Lillian June Kepp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kepp, became the bride of William David McConnell, son of Mrs. A. McConnell of Winnipeg.

Rev. T. R. Davies performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long sleeve, floor-length white satin gown fashioned with a nylon yoke and satin applique with rhinestone trimmings. She wore her mother's rhinestone tiara. Her veil was English net with pink embroidered wedding bells in each corner, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Lillian Gilmore was the bride's only attendant.

She chose a blue satin slipper-length dress fashioned with a bustle trimmed with pink lace and carried a bouquet of spring flowers.

Benjamin Olson, best man, Warren Kepp and Richard Davies were ushers.

Thelma Iles sang O Perfect Love, accompanied by Jean Hepburn, organist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held where the bride's table was set with an ivory satin cloth and centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Spring flowers and tall tapers completed the decorations.

Mrs. Kepp chose for her daughter a white dress with a pink belt.

Women School Teachers "Rationed" in Britain

LONDON, March 20.—(Reuters).—Women school teachers in Britain are so scarce that they are being "rationed."

An official of the ministry of education is the main reason for the shortage because the rise in the birth rate five years ago is just beginning to have its effect.

"These children are now of school age, and as most of the teachers in the schools are women, there is a shortage for other grade schools."

Ministry officials have qualified for the 20,000 teachers who have qualified since the war. The ministry is setting a standard to lay down the total number of women to be allocated to each school.

Local authorities will be able to appoint men without the imposition of any limit by the ministry, but women teachers will be controlled on a regional basis.

Under the new scheme, London stands to lose 400 school-mistresses but Birmingham will gain 500.

There are 35,000 teachers in training in Britain today. Some 12,000 mostly men are on a one-year training course called an "emergency scheme" at some 55 colleges throughout the country. Another 20,000 are taking two-to-four-year courses at 96 permanent colleges.

Many women teachers who had stayed on during the war were retiring but the ministry was unable to increase in infant pupils.

Make it women who were eventually teaching in girls' schools, the official said: "It looks so. It depends on how many women come forward."

CHEMICAL DYES MAY PROVE WEAPON

Doctor Risks His Life To Aid War on Cancer

PHILADELPHIA, March 28.—(AP)—Experiments in which a doctor risked his life as a volunteer guinea pig disclosed that chemical dyes may prove a "most powerful weapon" in warfare against cancer, the University of Pennsylvania said Saturday.

The doctor asked that his name not be used. He volunteered after a dye-similar to that used on Easter Eggs and catalogued in the color index at Nile Blue sulfate—proved toxic in experiments on animals, the university reported.

Dr. Philip P. Gold, found in neuro-surgery in the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, became convinced a simple change in the dye structure would produce a compound less toxic.

It was the synthesized dye known as Nile Blue which the anonymous hero swallowed to test its poisonous effect on humans. There were no ill effects. But the doctor turned a handsome shade of blue.

The newly established cancer commission of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School and hospital reported "experiments on animals demonstrated that certain malignant growths not only are retarded by selected dyes, but some of these substances actually caused a marked shrinkage of the malignant tissues."

Although the experiments have been carried out jointly by the university's Harrison department of surgical research and the Wistar Institute of Anatomy and Biology, the commission credited a woman scientist with a large part in the tests.

The commission said Dr. Margaret Reed Lewis "has been examining possibilities of the use of dyes in connection with cancer research."

"Knowing that cancer cells break off and wander into other tissues," the commission reported, "she found it important to find a colored substance selective for cancer tissue so that its course could be traced through the body."

Much Business Ahead for House

Only Thirteen Bills Passed Up to Recess for Easter

By George Kitchen

OTTAWA, March 29.—(CP)—Parliament, in the three months preceding the current Easter recess, has blown off a couple of million words of oratory, carrying with it the hard core of the session's legislative program but still leaving a sizeable chunk of unfinished business.

On the surface the achievement appears small, with only 13 bills passed by the sometimes-bolstered Commons and its lately elder brother, the Senate, since the sitting began Dec. 5. But those measures include the backbone of the government's so-called emergency legislation.

GOING ROUGH, ROCKY

Most of these bills found the legislative going rough and rocky and the Commons, not to mention the Senate frequently talked itself into a fighting, angry mood which ended only with a flurry of votes settling the issue.

The most controversial of the division-producing issues was that revolving around the report of the royal commission which investigated the dispatch of the Canadian expedition to Hong Kong.

A long Progressive-Conservative fight for the production of the commission's evidence ended with the government tabling 1,000 words of testimony and 300 exhibits but keeping secret documents which said the British government had investigated the dispatch of the Canadian expedition to Hong Kong.

In none of these votes was the government threatened, although one contest it outvoted the opposition by a margin of only five and in another the majority was also seven.

Gale Wrecks Planes At Fairbanks, Alaska

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, March 29.—(AP)—A 60- to 75-mile-an-hour gale struck Fairbanks Saturday, wrecking 16 parked planes at the municipal airport, toppling telephone and power poles, uprooting trees and doing minor damage to buildings.
